

Cargo Fleet

Risks of war, terrorism and strike
Maritime cover (waterborne)

3

Special agreements n° 492

Risks of war, terrorism and strike

Maritime cover (waterborne)

Insurance Policy

General Terms and Conditions n° 274

Legal provisions and duties of the insurer and insured party

Special Agreement n°491

Risks of war, terrorism and strike

Extended cover

4

Contents

Losses covered 5

Payment of losses 6

Exclusions 7

Duration of the coverage 8

Territory covered 9

Changes during the course of transportation 10

Abandonment 10

Special provisions for subscription and/or temporary contracts 11

Premium and regularisation 13

Termination 14

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

5

Article 1.1

Material damage to the insured merchandise is covered if resulting from:

a) civil war or war between countries, hostilities, reprisals, torpedoes, mines and all other war machines and generally, all accidents and events due to war and acts of sabotage and terrorism of a political nature or related to war;

b) captures, takeovers, arrests, seizures, constraints, molestations or detention by any government or authority;

c) riots, popular movements, strikes, lockouts and other similar events;

d) piracy of a political nature or related to war;

e) war arms or machines destined to explode through modification of the structure of the nucleus of the atom.

f) scuttling or destruction ordered by the French authorities subsequent to one of the above events.

Article 1.2

Also covered when arising from one of the events cited in article 1.1 above are:

- a) the risks of theft, pillage or disappearance;
- b) material damage suffered by goods insured subsequent to a stoppage of refrigeration or air conditioning equipment following a fuel shortage, labour or defective servicing;
- c) deterioration in the insured goods following lateness.

Article 1.3

Dispossession or unavailability giving right to abandonment is covered when resulting from capture, arrest, seizure, constraint or detention ordered by any government or authority;

Damages covered

1

The present Special Agreements are only valid if they complete the General Terms and Conditions of Cargofleet, reference 274. They apply to all shipments carried out by shippers and/or professional transporters.

6

Article 1.4

Also covered, to the equivalent of their amount and in proportion with their insured value, are the limited expenses listed below, when they are the result of one of the events listed above:

- a) Reasonably incurred costs with a view to conserving the insured goods from material damages covered or limiting the same material damages;
- b) The contribution of the insured goods to common damages and expenses for assistance, the Insurer, besides accepting being substituted for the Insured Party to pay the provisional premium or guarantee payment of the premium for common damages and expenses for assistance;
- c) The expert's expenses and fees, and those of the averaging surveyor
- d) Costs reasonably listed in the event of voyage interruption or rupture, for unloading, storage, transfer, rerouting, the cost of onward dispatch and demurrage of the insured goods to the destination designated in the Special Conditions, in the transport contract to any other place of destination suitable to the Insurer.

The costs listed are covered for up to twelve months with effect from landing the insured goods where their onward dispatch commenced before the said period of 12 months.

The cost of storage is covered for a maximum period of 6 months.

Article 1.5

Under the conditions of "Institute War Clauses and Institute Strike Clauses", shipments for which the conditions of sale, documentary credit or any other similar agreement so stipulates, shall be covered, without derogation to more favourable conditions in the Special Agreement.

Article 1.6 - Presumption

When it is not possible to establish the cause of damages, these are taken as being the result of a risk included in the Cargofleet General Terms and Conditions, reference 274.

Losses covered

Payment of losses

2

In all cases giving rise to compensation from the Insurer, payment is made without franchise.

7

Exclusions

3

Article 3.1 – Excluded risks and damages

The following are excluded:

- a) dispossession or unavailability resulting from capture, takeover, arrest, seizure, constraint, detention or the consequences thereof ordered by the authorities of a European Union Member State, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Iceland or Norway; are however covered for risks of scuttling, destruction and wilful burning in compliance with the orders of the French authorities, subsequent to one of the events listed in Section 1 above;
- b) dispossession or unavailability resulting from seizure or detention by an authority of right or consecutive to a fraudulent operation;
- c) material damage* undergone during dispossession or unavailability provided for in indents a) and b) above;
- d) material damage* undergone by the goods belonging, at the time of the loss, to an enemy of France ;
- e) any consequences whatsoever arising from export or import prohibitions, as well as generally, all obstacles to commercial exploitation or operation by the Insured Party or by the beneficiaries of the insurance.

Article 3.2 – Excluded goods

Ammunition and war equipment shall be excluded, except in cases of agreements to the contrary and payment of a special premium.

8

Duration of the coverage

4

The Insurer's coverage shall take effect when the goods leave land at the port of loading to be boarded on the seagoing vessel or lighters. It ends when they are offloaded at the final port of offloading. Unless stipulated to the contrary, it may not be prolonged, even on board the seagoing vessel or lighter, beyond a period of 15 days from midnight on the day when the vessel drops anchor or is moored in the final port of offloading.

If the maritime transporter ends the voyage in a port or place other than that initially planned, the port or place in question shall be taken as the final port of offloading and the coverage shall end as specified in the previous subparagraph. However, if within a period of 2 months, the goods are re-shipped, the insurance shall take effect once more on being loaded onto a seagoing vessel, under new insurance conditions to be agreed on loading between the Insurer and the Insured Party.

In the case of transshipment to another seagoing vessel, the Insurer's coverage shall end, unless stipulated to the contrary, on the expiry of a period of 15 days as from midnight on the day when the first vessel, having arrived at the port of transshipment, drops anchor or is moored there. It shall be taken up again only when the insured goods are boarded on the seagoing vessel onto which the transshipment is made.

During the pre-quoted period of 15 days, the insured goods shall remain covered both on board the first vessel, on lighters and on land.

The periods mentioned in this article, may be extended by a special agreement and premium, on condition that the Insured Party has requested this prior to the commencement of the cover.

9

Cover applies in accordance with the territory stated in the Special Conditions.

Territory covered

5

10

Change during the course of transportation

6

Abandonment

7

The right to abandonment is available to the Insured Party.

1) In compliance with the provisions of Article 24.2 of the Cargofleet General Terms and Conditions, reference 274.

2) In the case of dispossession or unavailability as a result of one of the events listed in Article 1.3 above.

However, the Insured Party, under penalty of inadmissibility, should, within 3 months at the latest from being made aware of the event, notify the Insurer with documents as proof, of the event opening his right to abandonment.

In the case of transshipment or deviation and all modifications entailing an increase risks, the Insured Party shall undertake to inform the Insurer within 3 days of his becoming aware of them.

If he informs the Insurer and if the aggravation is not caused by his fault, the insurance shall be continued in return for a possible additional premium corresponding to the increase in question.

If the increase is caused by the Insured party, the Insurer may either end the present coverage within three days of becoming aware of it, or request payment of a premium corresponding to the increase in the risk in question.

If the Insured Party does not inform the Insurer within three days, the present coverage shall automatically end, unless he provides proof of his good faith, in which case the Insurer shall cover the risk in proportion to the premium paid compared with the one he should have received, unless he establishes that he would not have covered the risks had he been aware of them.

11

Article 8.1 - Presumption of awareness of an event concerning the insured goods

The insurance shall not be valid if it is established that, prior to the commencement of the risk, the news of an event mentioned in article 1.1 above was known at the place of contract subscription, or at the place where items were notified both in respect of the Insured Party and of the third party, or at the place where the Insurer is situated, without there being a need to establish proof that the Insured Party was personally aware of such an event.

Article 8.2 – Rate of premium applying on notification of an item and/or case by case

Under the provisions of the Special Conditions, the rate of premium is that applicable on the date of notification of an item where this is prior to cover taking effect. The rate remains valid where the cover takes effect within seven days of this notification.

When the insured goods transit in a geographic area or a country that is subject to a case by case premium under the Special Conditions, the cover remains valid, on condition that the Insured Party notifies the Insurer as soon as he becomes aware of it and that he undertakes to pay the additional premium.

When the insured goods are to arrive at or to come from a geographic area or a country subject to a case by case premium under the Special Conditions, the cover is only valid on prior request by the Insured Party and subject to an additional premium.

Special provisions for subscription and/or temporary contracts

8

12

Article 8.3 – Rate of premium applying to a subscription contract with binding revision

The rate of premium is that applying on the date of subscribing to the contract and remains valid until the next renewal date and is without tacit renewal. At each renewal, the premium will be determined in relation to the variable items making up the basis of the premium and/or any changes in the geographic area of the risk and/or any deterioration in the geo-political situation.

Special Provisions

13

Article 9.1 – Premium rates

The premium rate(s) are stated in the Special Conditions

Article 9.2 - Regularisation of the premium

Regularisation of the premium is given in Section 6 of the Cargofleet General Terms and Conditions, reference 274.

Premiums and regularisation

9

14 Termination

10

Article 10.1 - Implementation

The Insured Party and the Insurers have the option of terminating cover under this Special Agreement at any time. Termination shall be notified by registered letter with confirmation of receipt. It shall take effect at the earliest 2 clear days after the date of receipt of the letter of termination.

In all cases where the said letter has not reached the recipient, even due to acts of God or fortuitous circumstances, 5 clear days after being sent, termination shall become effective as from midnight on the 5th day.

Termination shall not apply:

- To goods for which cover applying under this Special Agreement took effect before expiry of the above period;
- To goods loaded onto any means of transport after expiry of the period if the Insured Party was not in a position to prevent their being loaded.

Article 10.2 - Third party acting in good faith

Suspension or termination notified by the Insurer shall remain without effect with respect to a third party acting in good faith to whom the certificate of insurance has been submitted prior to the damage and to notification of the suspension or termination, but the Insurer shall have the right to request that the Insured Party reimburse the compensation paid by him to the said third party.

The Insurer shall be entitled to the premium relating to the certificate of insurance transmitted to the said third party.

All the provisions of the present Article shall also apply to contracts taken out for third parties.

Ref: COF 408 (09/2011)

